THE FIRM This trial boutique has an outstanding reputation in product liability proceedings. Sources continue to praise the depth of the group’s talent despite the departure of three partners to the newly established Goldman Ismail Tomaselli Brennan & Baum. It represents a broad base of clients, including Federal Signal, Merck and NL Industries. It was also retained by Bayer as national, multidistrict litigation and lead trial counsel in the Baycol litigation.

Sources Say: “A trial powerhouse that attracts tremendous talent.”

KEY INDIVIDUALS Philip Beck is a preeminent trial attorney, with a phenomenal reputation for representing pharmaceutical companies. “It is hard to find a bigger star in this area,” according to one interviewee. Beck is national trial counsel for Bayer in both the Trasyol and the Baycol litigation. Donald Scott has a broad and successful products practice. “He can do just about anything!” comments one impressed interviewee. He is lead trial counsel for AstraZeneca in litigation involving claims of diabetes due to use of Seroquel. Adam Hoeflich is commended for his strength in both the technical and the strategic elements of products litigation. He is lead counsel for Bayer on YAZ and Yasmin oral contraceptive cases and for Georgia-Pacific in drywall litigation.
